Foreword

As we look over the past years of our Seminary's existence, many things parade before our eyes. These things are spelled out in both positive and negative terms. But why think of the past when the present is here and the future has yet to come?

Well, although the light from our "Lamp" shine into the darkness of the dim past, its illumination is more apparent at the present, it will become even greater in the future. For Yesterday's Present was the past's future, and today's present will be tomorrow's past. We merely use this backward glance as a point of anchorage, or a means to a greater end.

We, the sons and daughters of the American Baptist Theological Seminary, look upon our rich heritage with pride. But we live not in the past. Our dreams and aspirations are an integral part of the present; yet our ultimate goal is in the not too distant future.

This book, "THE LAMP," is a token of our respect for the past, our dedication and loyalty to the present, and our hope for the future. Looking back has disclosed many things about the past. This backward glance helps us to live forward. While we do not ignore the demands of the present, we are looking to the future for greater and nobler achievements.

Our deepest appreciation is extended to our faculty, staff, colleagues and all who have given us their support and helpful suggestions.

1. We hail thee Al-ma Ma-ter, The School we cherish so;
The world will read thy da-ta, Where ev-er we may go;
Thy words we'll ne-ver al-ter, We'll ne-ver, ne-ver fal-ter,
In show-ing forth our faith-ful-ness A. B. T. S.
2. The world will praise each stu-dent, Where-ev-er he may go;
Thy walls have made them pru-dent, Be-cause they love thee so;
They'll ne'er for-get the plea-sures, The care and pre-cious trea-sures
Of all thy love and right-eous-ness A. B. T. S.
3. The Mem'ry of thy teach-ers Shall Linger in our hearts;
The words of all thy preach-ers shall battle Sa-tan's darts;
We'll hon-or thee for-ev-er, For-sake thee ne-ver, ne-ver,
For-'er we'll sing thy bless-ed-ness A. B. T. S.

Words From The President

GREETINGS TO THE CLASS OF 1960:

I salute you for what you are and for that which you represent.

First, you are those who have had the faith, courage, and strength to persevere unto the end. It is the nature of Life that there is no victory without a struggle. Therefore, your perseverance is a character trait which will stand you in good stead for your career in Kingdom work. Also you will discover that each victory will give you greater assurance of overcoming those obstacles which will surely be found in your path from time to time in the future.

Secondly, you represent something wholesome, noble, and new which is destined by God to be heard in this country and in the world. A few decades ago when Wendell Wilkie wrote "One World" his words were much more profound than he or we thought. But now I sense a strange and contemporary urgency in Our Lord's praying when He said, "That they all may be one." The Father will not leave His Son's prayer unanswered. Divine forces are moving relentlessly in that direction. No humanly devised obstacles will be successful in thwarting the realization of God's will. You represent a group who have heard the drum-beat of the highest of all loyalties. More than that, you have found unprecedented courage to march in step with its cadence.

May you never allow any diabolical force to kill your dream, but rather may God allow it to be born in all the weak, the uncertain, the cowardly, and the unbelieving.

Sincerely,

MAYNARD P. TURNER, JR.
President

Dedication

ISAIAH ROWSER

We wish to express at this time our deepest appreciation to Reverend Isaiah Rowser, a Christian gentleman and a loyal student of the "Class of 1959." Because of his untiring efforts and enthusiastic spirit, we were able to produce the first "LAMP," published by the American Baptist Theological Seminary in 1959.

Our earnest prayer is that God's richest blessings rest upon him as he continues to carry out God's program.

Dedication

DR. L. S. SEDBERRY

This page is dedicated to Dr. L. S. Sedberry, the executive secretary-treasurer of the Commission on the American Baptist Theological Seminary; whose life and service have been largely given to the material and spiritual growth and development of our Seminary.

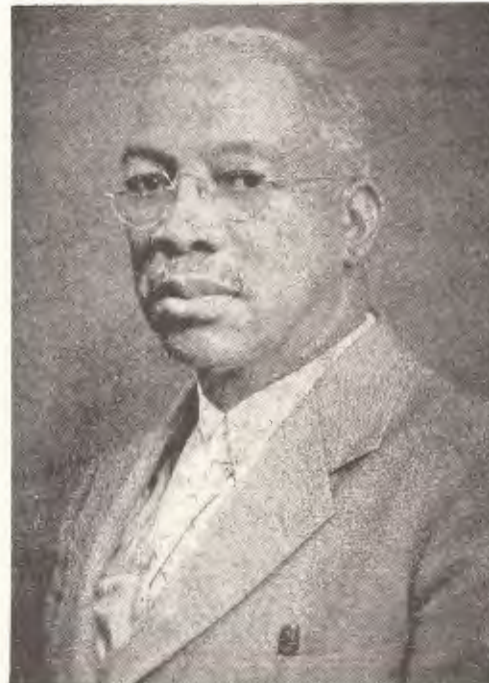

We are most appreciative for his unrelenting service. May the blessing of the Lord overshadow him in all his endeavors.

In Memory of

DR. A. M. TOWNSEND
*Executive Secretary of the National Baptist
Sunday School Board of America, Inc.*

We pay tribute to the noble work to which he has dedicated his life on every side and in every walk of life and will stand as a living memorial to his high ideals and principles for many generations to come.

DR. J. M. NABRIT
First President, National Baptist Missionary Training School

A thing of beauty is a joy forever: Its loveliness increases; it will never Pass into nothingness; but still will keep A bower quiet for us, and a sleep Full of sweet dreams, and health, and quiet breathing.

Purpose

American Baptist Theological Seminary

The incentive for the founding of the institution grew out of the recognition of a long-felt need on the part of the Baptist fathers of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated, and the Southern Baptist Convention for the establishment of a Seminary for the training of Negro ministers.

For more than a quarter of a century, the Seminary has been engaged in the training of ministers, missionaries and other Christian workers who are serving as pastors, presidents of schools, teachers and missionaries throughout America, in Africa, the West Indies, South and Central America and the Bahama Islands.

The institution has as its sole objective the training of men and women in Christian service. In its objective, it seeks to not only increase the academic knowledge of the student, but to provide a social and spiritual atmosphere in which a student may develop to the fullest extent those characteristics and capabilities of which he will make use in later life.

More than ever, the need for such an institution as the American Baptist Theological Seminary becomes significant. While concerned with the intellectual development of its students, its ideals are committed to the conviction that integrity, as well as other academic achievements figure as vitally in the development of the total life of Christian workers as any other single factor.

Pledge of ABT Students

(Adapted from "Oath of the Athenian Young Man")

We will never bring disgrace to this, our Seminary, by any act of dishonesty or cowardice; we will fight for our ideals and sacred things of the Seminary, both alone and with many; we will revere and obey the Seminary's regulations and will do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in those about us; we will strive unceasingly to quicken the community's sense of social duty; and thus, in all these ways, we will strive to transmit this Seminary life and spirit not only not less but greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

Seniors Class History '60

The time has come for the Class of '60 to look back into the past; and count the cost of the voyage which took place on the Old Ship (A.B.T.)

In the fall of '56 about twenty (20) anxious travelers nervously awaited the wonders which would take place on the voyage. As we stood gazing at the battered Old Ship (A.B.T.) as she stood in port, the travelers talking among themselves said, "She had landed many a thousand." At that point the Captain gave the orders to lower the gang plank and the travelers rushed on board. The Captain shouted, "Pull up anchor," and we set sail.

All the travelers who were on board were eager to participate in the many activities immediately upon entering the ship. Some of our travelers stepped into the spotlight and received awards.

As always, there have been many incidents beyond our control. Some travelers were left at the second stop and others joined the voyage.

A new Captain came aboard the ship at the second stop and there were many stormy days. It seemed that we would never reach land again. The Captain said, "Have courage, stay with the Ship, sail on! sail on! sail on!"

How fascinating was our fourth stop; we are now at the port of graduation. To some of us our voyage is ended; to others, maybe a change of ship sailing into deeper and more exciting waters.

As we stand at the port admiring the faithful Old Ship (A.B.T.) our hearts are filled with gratitude for the Captain, crew and mates who have brought us safely through this voyage.

God bless you, A.B.T. May you sail on, and on, and on.

Class Poem

More than three years ago,
We mounted this hill to reach a goal;
Knowing if we'er to get the most of life
We must put up a reverent fight.

God through his love and guiding hands,
Has led us to our victory land;
Our Alma Mater, teachers, and friends,
We are grateful for this noble span.

Deeper than the deepest ocean,
Higher than the skies above;
Lie within our hearts a story
With a great enchanting love.

We shall mount up with wings as eagles,
Just as the eagle leads her young;
For in the field among humanity,
Another victory to be won.

We are glad to be an instrument,
Of grace that can be used;
At all time and any place,
However God may choose.
